

Kelsey Jackson HPCA 2006 Graduate

I was a member of the first graduating class of High Point Christian Academy — the class of 2006. I am now a senior at the University of NC-Chapel Hill, preparing to graduate (on time!) in May with a degree in Political Science. The education I received at HPCA, and the opportunities and experiences I had there, provided me with the vital tools that I needed to succeed at Carolina. In the Christian environment at HPCA, where standards and expectations are very high, I was challenged to excel both academically and spiritually by teachers and administrators who cared about me and were available to help me succeed. At HPCA, I had many opportunities to develop leadership, study and organizational skills and to gain a confidence in my abilities that has helped me take on the challenges of college life and excel.

I am thankful for the education I received at High Point Christian. As I move on into professional life, I will always remember my HPCA experience and the special people who taught me and guided me throughout my years there!

Kelsey has been an intern for the NC GOP under the state GOP head, Tom Fetzer, and had interned in DC for Howard Coble. She has returned to work as a paid intern for the NC GOP, working as a scheduler for Fetzer.
