

HPCA Happenings

Volume 3 Issue 7

March 2011

ACSI Piano Festival

Twenty-seven elementary and middle school students attended the ACSI Piano Festival at North Raleigh Christian Academy on Friday, March 11th.

Receiving a rating of Excellent were:

Jacob Akes
Tony Clark
Gracie Dunaway
McKenna Farlow
Joshua Henry
Timothy Lo
Marie Romero-Diaz
Cassidy Windsor

Receiving a rating of Superior were:

Adanna Aham-Iroetugo
Emily Barrett
Cecilia Bradley
Miguel Clark
Joseph Cranfill
Faith Dunaway
Emily-Anne Ellas
Zachary Hazelwood
Joseph Henry
Tomi Nicole Kaukola
Anna Kristin Kirby
Alli Kurfees
Bethany Martin
Hannah Norris
Austin Perryman
Hannah Faith Robinson
Caitlin Scheerer
Courtney Windsor
Meredith Yates

Middle School Students

Elementary Students

All-Area Awards

GIRLS SWIMMING

FAITH JOHNSON, HIGH POINT CHRISTIAN SWIMMER OF THE YEAR

JUNIOR

- NCISAA 3-A state champion in 50 freestyle (23.00) and 100 freestyle (50.31)
- 50 free time would have broken a state record at NCHSAA 4-A meet
- Piedmont Athletic Conference of Independent Schools swimmer of the year
- Set PACIS records in the 100 and 200 free
- Qualified for Olympic trials in the 50 and 100 free
- Coach's comment: "Faith is an amazing swimmer and athlete and yet remains extremely ^{humble}. She has great determination and drive, encouraging those around her to push themselves to ^{Faith.JPG} level."
— Sally Nance

NELSON KEPLEY/News & Record

FIRST TEAM ALL-AREA

BOYS SWIMMING

AARON KEY

HIGH POINT CHRISTIAN, SENIOR

- NCISAA 3-A state runner-up in 50 freestyle (22.13), third in the 100 breaststroke (1:01.01)
- Piedmont Athletic Conference of Independent Schools swimmer of the year
- Set PACIS records in the 50 free and 100 breaststroke

BOYS BASKETBALL

2nd TEAM ALL-AREA

MITCH OATES

HIGH POINT CHRISTIAN, SENIOR

- Point guard averaged 19.0 points, 6.8 assists, 2.4 steals
- NCISAA 3-A all-state selection
- Team went 18-14 overall, 4-4 in PACIS (third place); reached first round of playoffs
- Coach's comment: "Mitch has been a pleasure to coach here at High Point Christian. He was the orchestrator of our attack and had some huge games here. His production this year solidified that he is one of the best players around." — Brandon Clifford

HONORABLE MENTION

Jordan Weethee

Kindergarten

Muffins with Moms

Cougar Cub News

Cougar Cub Club has enjoyed learning some amazing things from Mad Science. We discovered the power of air and static electricity and we marveled at the properties of polymers!

High Point Christian Academy Preschool

Circus Day!

Playing fun carnival games

Working together as a team

Making clown bags
Sorting Skittles into a design

High Point Christian Academy Preschool

After lots of fun and games we enjoyed a yummy hot dog lunch with special treats provided by our great parent helpers!

We finished our Circus Day with a Circus Parade in front of the other preschool classes and the Kindergarten classes

HPCA Preschool teachers in their finest Circus apparel!

HPCA Preschool Registration is going on now!
For more information contact Jeanne Oweis at 841-8770