

English 12 Honors -- Summer Assignment

Mr. Matthew Doyle email: mduoye@hpcacougars.org

Greetings, Honored English Students!

I'm so glad that you have chosen to challenge yourselves through Honors English. Hopefully, you will find the effort worthwhile. To aid you in stepping into senior year with all its extra responsibilities, I have chosen the following assignments for you to complete. A NEW contemporary novel that is incredibly engrossing, the summer reading should be easily digestible between now and August. The writing assignments will help you and your teachers prepare for college applications and letters of recommendation. Remember: I have chosen all the assignments with care and with your best interests as seniors in mind. Have a blessed summer!

NOTE: ASSIGNMENTS ARE DUE ON THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

1. Reading

The Testing by Joelle Charbonneau. A relatively new offering in young adult literature, it provides a fresh but still exciting twist on the popular dystopian genre. I think you will enjoy this book and, no doubt, find it just as difficult to put down as its predecessors, The Hunger Games, Divergent, and The Maze Runner – I did. Even if you're a reluctant reader, I think you will be surprised at how easy the story is to read and how quickly you turn the pages! Remember: Your detailed knowledge of this work will be assessed at the beginning of the school year. Annotating your copy of the novel and/or taking notes is not required; however, the most successful readers recognize the benefit of both.

2. College Essay

Assignment: Choose one of the topics from the Common Application OR a specific topic from the application of one of the colleges/universities to which you are actually applying (if they do not use the Common App). Write an essay in response to the selected prompt. Note: DO NOT USE SHORT ESSAY RESPONSES (200 WORDS OR LESS) FOR THIS ASSIGNMENT -- if you are participating in "Camp College" this summer, you may use one of the essays for this assignment that you complete for Mrs. Perryman.

Length: approximately 500 words (unless instructions suggest otherwise)

Style Criteria: Adherence to the rules of Standard English grammar; catchy introduction and use of transitions between paragraphs/thoughts; strong/memorable conclusion; appropriate tone for the topic and the audience; keep in mind that factual information has already been included on an application – this is the place to showcase your personality (within reason) and your non-quantifiable achievements

Format: Typed, double-spaced, Times New Roman, 12 pt. font. Type the essay prompt, the min/max word count required, and your essay's word count at the top of your essay.

3. Questionnaire

Complete the questions on the attached pages for Mrs. Perryman. The answers you provide will be used by the teachers writing your letters of recommendation for college and scholarship opportunities; therefore, it would behoove you to answer thoughtfully and fully, providing as much detail and/or explanation as possible. You may type or write your responses.
