

HIGH POINT CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

POSITION: Head Varsity Football Coach and PE/Strength and Conditioning Teacher

High Point Christian Academy (HPCA) is seeking a head varsity football coach who will be a full time member of the HPCA faculty and can teach high school physical education, including strength and conditioning classes. Depending on the applicant, there may be some duties with assisting the athletic director. The teacher/coach is a member of the faculty, reporting directly to the high school principal as a PE instructor and the athletic director as a coach. The teacher/coach supports the work of the academy by promoting the mission, core values, and policies of HPCA.

Qualifications and Qualities

The Teacher/Coach:

- Is a spiritually mature, born-again Christian.
- Believes the Bible is God's Word and standard for faith and daily living.
- Is a Christian role model in attitude, speech, and actions toward others. This includes being committed to the biblical standards for sexual conduct.
- Is a member in good standing at a local, evangelical church which has a Statement of Faith that is in agreement with HPCA's Statement of Faith.
- Has an undergraduate or master's degree in 9 -12 Physical Education or a degree that is equivalent.
- Has an ACSI teaching certificate or state teaching certificate in physical education in grades 9-12 or is willing to obtain a teaching certificate.
- Demonstrates pedagogical understanding of students in grades 9-12 and has experience in teaching students weight lifting techniques.
- Demonstrates experience in a school setting, teaching physical education to high school students, and coaching football in a school setting (preferably a Christian school setting).
- Has the ability to orchestrate a highly organized, exciting, and dynamic learning environment in the classroom and the football field.
- Has the ability to lead a football program (Varsity and JV) and can lead/organize a group of coaches to pursue a like-minded mission.
- Has integrity, sound judgement, self-confidence, maturity, and a sense of perspective which means that he develops appropriate relationships with students and families.
- Has excellent interpersonal, presentation, writing, organizational, and communication skills and able to reflect a positive image for the HPCA community in public settings and through media outlets.
- Has a commitment for excellence in athletics while strictly adhering to all competitive, organizational, and operational guidelines as defined by the NCISAA and HPCA.
- Is a self-starter and initiator, and is able to work independently and effectively on a team.
- Possesses a high level of energy and ability to work on many tasks and projects.
- Has a love for children and a willingness to go above and beyond on behalf of students.

High Point Christian Academy is committed to Christ-centered, quality education and academic excellence in partnership with church and family within a loving and caring atmosphere.
