

Meet the Chef Manager

Michael
Patrick
Hussey

*Chef Manager
High Point Christian Academy*

Michael Patrick Hussey, Jr attended Johnson and Wales University where he received his Associate of Science in Culinary Arts in 2008.

Michael has worked in several pivotal roles within the dining industry such as being a Culinary Supervisor where he helped support the U.S Open Culinary Team.

After two years with Morrison Health Care, Michael became apart of the Executive Chef Board of Dining at The University of North Carolina Greensboro.

The next step in Michaels culinary career found him at Adams Farm Living and Rehab Culinary Service Group, where he became a Food Service Director managing 120+ residents and patients.

Michael has several certifications as well such as: Serve Safe certified, Certified Culinarian, Certified Dietary Manager, and Certified Food Protection Professional. With years of experience, years of increasing sales, satisfaction, and innovation, we are happy to have Michael lead our staff to help improve our culinary experience.

